Dear Parents

Years 3 and 4 had an excellent visit to Dorset County Museum. The visit was focussed on their Roman history topic. So they dressed up (of course!) as 'unhappy' slaves and 'happy' rich people, became archaeologists and looked at Roman artefacts. They also looked around the rest of the museum. Please see pictures below.

Butterfly class made super bread dough hand sculptures, inspired by sculptor Marc Quinn. The children took their work home and, hopefully, could eat it!

The children are excited about the Dorset Library's Summer Reading Challenge. They had a special virtual assembly about it and a surprise visitor popped in – Mrs See! Please do take them to the library to start their challenge.

DASP have rearranged visits to the middle school for Year 4 children; they will visit after school on Wednesday 7 July. On Thursday 1 July, Year 4 will not go to the middle school for the day but will be with us in school as usual. The rest of the children will 'move up' to the next year group for the day.

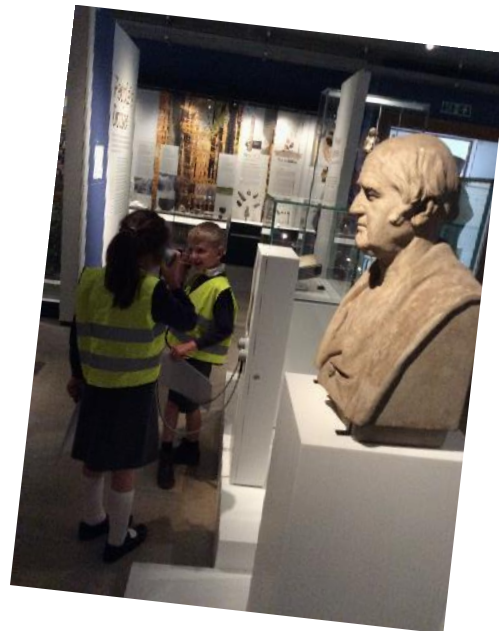

Yours sincerely,

Jyotsna Chaffey
