Children's author Lois Davis will be at Cheselbourne Village School on Thursday 28th February to visit your child's class. As well as having chance to quiz her about her book 'Great-Grandma and the Camper Van', children will hear extracts from the book and learn about what it takes to be a writer.

After school, Lois will be available to sign books and there will be copies of 'Great-Grandma and the Camper Van' available to purchase.

If you would like to pre-order a personalised, signed copy of the book, please fill in the form below and return to school, together with payment, by Monday 25th February.
