

Our School Council are working really hard to make choices that the children want in Cheselbourne. They meet every week, discuss comments made to them by the other children, make decisions and keep good notes so nothing is forgotten. James and Cora are our Pupil Voice champions and they attend meetings at the Thomas Hardy School and St Mary's Middle to ensure even the youngest child's voice is heard throughout the partnership.

Our request for books to start a library for children in Sierra Leone was outstanding - as usual. We had boxes and boxes of truly beautiful books for tiny children right up to older reference books. Councilor Susan Jefferies came to take the books to be shipped out and she was both amazed and so pleased. The children in Sierra Leone have no books at all and she was so happy to be providing them with so much. Thank you all.

The whole school visited The Priest House Museum in Wimborne, arriving a little late with all the ice accidents on route. They had a wonderful time trying out some very old and very precious toys.

2009 is our centenary year and we would love for as many of you as possible to call into the school on the morning of Friday 3 April at around 10.15. Oliver Letwin will be there as will, we hope, many of our 'old' teachers, headteachers and pupils. Please pass this message on to anyone that you know that was a former pupil. Also, Jacky Folley is collecting 'old' photos. We will scan and return any you lend to us. Tea, coffee, singing and music and much more.
